FREIGHT TARIFF 300
RULES AND GOVERNING PROVISIONS:				RULE NO:
DEFINITIONS – HOLIDAYS				120
Where reference is made in this tariff to "Holidays," the following are referred to (see Note 1):				◆
Christmas Day		Christmas Eve Day		Labor Day
Memorial Day		Thanksgiving Day		New Year's Day
Independence Day		Day after Thanksgiving Day
(1) When the Holiday falls on a Saturday, the preceding workday will be designated as the Holiday. When the holiday falls on a Sunday, the following workday will be designated as the Holiday.
APPLICATION OF TARIFF – GENERAL				160
(1) Except as otherwise provided, this tariff applies to the transportation of general commodities and like personal property via Company's scheduled routes. Those routes involve transportation between Auburn, WA and points in Alaska. Separately, Company may offer, in its sole discretion, certain customers the option of receiving transportation from points in the contiguous 48 states to points in Alaska ("SPAJCONN," further referenced as the "AlaskaConnect Services"). At the sole discretion of the Company, it will grant access to such select customers to use the AlaskaConnect Services' rate base. AlaskaConnect Services will be subject to the additional terms and conditions set forth in Appendix A to this Tariff and in the event of a conflict between the provisions of Appendix A and the main body of this Tariff, the terms and conditions of Appendix A will govern with respect to any AlaskaConnect Services. In addition to applying when Span Alaska Transportation, LLC is named as the carrier on the face of the applicable bill of lading, this tariff also applies to services rendered by any entity included in the definition of "Company" where such entity issues a bill of lading naming itself as carrier and referencing this tariff. The liability of any entity included in the definition of "Company" is several and not joint. This Tariff shall apply to services provided by Company, in its capacity as either a motor carrier, broker or freight forwarder, in interstate, intrastate and/or foreign commerce between points in North America.
(2) The provisions of this Tariff may only be waived in a written agreement signed by and authorized representative of Company and Shipper. Unless expressly disclaimed by a such a written agreement, this Tariff shall apply to all services provided by Company or that are otherwise within the scope of this Tariff (including services performed pursuant to a Short Form Rate Confirmation or Spot Move Agreement where such agreement does not specifically disclaim the provisions of this Tariff), and the terms and conditions of Company's Standard Bill of Lading shall apply notwithstanding the use of any other bill of lading or shipping document. If there is a conflict between the terms and conditions of this Tariff and the terms and conditions of any air bill, manifest, label, bill of lading or other shipment documentation, the terms and conditions of this Tariff shall control.
(3) The establishment of a commodity rate removes the application of the class rate on the same article between the same points via the same route.
(4) Company reserves the right to utilize other routes and/or other carrier's participating herein.

STB SPAJ 300 SPAN-ALASKA TRANSPORTATION, LLC FREIGHT TARIFF 300
RULES AND GOVERNING PROVISIONS:	RULE NO:
(5) Except as otherwise provided, rates apply via a combination of motor-water-motor routes. (6) Company is under no obligation to provide service pursuant to this Tariff. (7) Freight charged on lineal, cubic foot, square yards or square foot basis will have its measurements rounded up to the next whole foot or yard. Fractions of feet or yards will not be used when calculating freight and/or charges hereunder. Goods loaded to containers under Shipper load and count will move at containerload (CL) rates only.
APPLICATION OF RATES – ESTIMATED FREIGHT CHARGES Upon request, Company will furnish, either orally, in writing or by electronic means, an estimate of the freight and other charges applicable to any given shipment moved or to be moved under the provisions of this tariff. The estimate will be given on the basis of the effectively published tariff provisions according to the facts concerning the shipment, which have been made known to Company. Estimates are furnished as a convenience to the shipping public, and represent nothing more than an approximation of freight charges, which is not binding upon either party. See Rule 1115.	190
ADVANCING CHARGES (Exception to NMFC Item 300) In no event will Company have any obligation to advance charges incurred with respect to the goods or services rendered with respect thereto, but such charges may, in Company's sole discretion, be advanced to Shipper, Consignee or cargo owners or its warehousemen or agents, e. Company will not issue a corrected freight bill based solely upon a change in instructions or other request regarding the advancing of any such amounts.	300
ARRIVAL NOTICE AND UNDELIVERED FREIGHT Except as may be otherwise provided herein, 48 hours free time, excluding Saturdays, Sunday and legal holidays, will be allowed. Storage charges assessed under Rule 910 will begin when free time expires. Company reserves the right to send a shipment to public warehouse at the expense of the owner once free time has expired or Company or any of its subcontractors may hold the shipment subject to storage fees defined in Rule 910. Free time will be computed from the first 8:00 AM after notice of arrival has been given or actual arrival of the freight at destination, whichever is later. The placing of a card in the mail, postage pre-paid, email, phone or fax message will be considered as giving notice of arrival. Any charges assessed with respect to storage, demurrage, delay, etc., will be charges in respect of the Goods and subject to Company's lien.	320

RULES AND GOVERNING PROVISIONS:		RULE NO:
CORRECTED BILLS OF LADING		362
Company shall have no obligation to collect charges from the consignee or otherwise provide "collect" service but may agree to do so in its sole discretion. If Company receives a request to modify a bill of lading or freight bill issued by Company, Company may agree to do so at its sole discretion. If Company agrees to change an issued bill of lading or freight bill, a charge of $46.00 for each charge will be assessed to the payer of the freight charges, in addition to any other fees incurred as a result of the change, including, but not limited to, fees for reconsignment, liftgate, appointment, inside delivery, residential delivery, reclassification, and any other services performed. The following also apply to requests to change a bill of lading or freight bill: (1) Corrected bills of lading or other instructions that purport to change the freight charges' collection status from prepaid to collect will not be accepted after the shipment has been delivered. Any change in collection status will not be permitted after payment has been received. (2) A corrected bill of lading that purports to change the freight charge's collection status from prepaid to collection will not be accepted if Section 7 (the non-recourse clause) of the corrected bill of lading has been signed. If the corrected bill of lading is inadvertently accepted and Section 7 has been signed, the signature will be considered invalid. The party requesting a change in collection status must guarantee payment of the freight charges if the new debtor fails to pay in full, without offset or deduction, within the prescribed credit guidelines. (3) A request to change the original freight charges' collection status from collect to prepaid requires a corrected bill of lading from Shipper, and Shipper must have established credit with SPAJ. A request to change the collection status may be submitted by Shipper on Shipper's letterhead in lieu of a corrected bill of lading, subject to all other provisions of this Item 362. (4) Redelivery, storage, or other charges that become applicable on shipments that have been refused due to the freight charges' collection status will be assessed against the party responsible for payment of the freight charges on the corrected bill of lading. (5) Corrected bills of lading changing the description, density, or weight of commodities, or the released, declared, or actual value in a shipment will not be accepted by Company without submission of conclusive documentary proof that the description, density, or weight is as claimed on the corrected bill of lading. (6) Company reserves the right to refuse corrections where the validity of the correction information has not been verified to the satisfaction of Company, or where execution of the correction request would violate applicable law, rule, or regulation. (7) When Company is instructed, after the shipment has been picked up, to bill the freight charges to a third party and such information is not shown on the bill of lading at the time of shipment.

RULES AND GOVERNING PROVISIONS:		RULE NO:
BILLS OF LADING, OTHER THAN COMPANY'S When Company signs for receipt on any Shipper's or third-party carrier's bill of lading other than Company's bill of lading, Company shall only acknowledge receipt of the shipment and shall not be accepting the terms or conditions as described on the Shipper's or third-party carrier's bill of lading. When a shipment is received on a bill of lading other than Company's bill of lading, all contract terms and conditions as stated in Item 365 shall remain applicable.		364
BILL OF LADING The front page and then-current terms and conditions of Company's bill of lading, issued at the time of shipment, shall be applicable to all goods received and/or transported by Company unless otherwise specifically agreed in a writing signed by an authorized representative of both Shipper and Company in. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between any provision pre-printed on the face of the bill of lading, or in the bill of lading terms, and this Tariff, the provisions of this Tariff will govern.		365
CHANGES TO TARIFF Company may amend this tariff at any time. The effective date of the revised tariff will be the issue date stated therein. Any such revised tariff will apply to any cargo first coming into possession of Company or its subcontractors on or after the issue date.		380

LIABILITY FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE TO GOODS		574
Company's liability for any loss, damage or destruction to goods being transported shall be that of a motor carrier as set forth in the Carmack Amendment codified at 49 U.S.C. § 14706, as amended from time to time, regardless of whether transport is interstate or intrastate, or involves foreign commerce. In no event shall Company be responsible for any consequential, incidental or unforeseen damage or loss. In addition, Company shall not be responsible for any such loss, damage, destruction or delay caused by one of the excepted circumstances set forth in 574(A) below. In any event, unless Shipper requests excess value liability coverage as set forth in 574(B) below, Company's liability for any loss, damage or destruction to any shipment shall not exceed the lesser of (i) the cost to repair or replace the goods, which shall in no event exceed the commercial invoice amount; and (ii) (A) with respect to new and unused items, $25.00 per pound, subject to a maximum liability of $100,000 per shipment; or (B) with respect to used or reconditioned items, $0.30 per pound, subject to a maximum liability of $1,000 per shipment. The foregoing notwithstanding, with respect to new and unused items consisting of articles that are described in National Motor Freight Classification Item 116030, Copiers, Printers, Scanners, or Facsimile machines, or components or part thereof, NOI note 116034 Company's liability for any loss, damage, or destruction to any shipment shall not exceed the lesser of a) the cost to repair or replace the goods which shall in no event exceed the commercial invoice amount, or b) $2.50 per pound per package. All such articles must be packaged in accordance with Specifications for Numbered Packages, Package 2534. All shipments with an origin in Alaska are deemed to consist of Used or Reconditioned Articles unless Shipper indicates otherwise in the space provided on the face of Company's bill of lading. If Shipper indicates on the face of Company's bill of lading that Alaska origin shipments consist of new and unused articles, there shall be a presumption that goods were new and unused unless and until Company provides evidence to the contrary. (A) Exceptions: Company shall not be liable for loss or damage from the following: (1) a) capture, seizure, arrest, restraint, detainment, confiscation, preemption, requisition or nationalization, and the consequences thereof or any attempt thereat, whether in time of peace or war and whether lawful or otherwise; b) all loss, damage or expense, whether in time of peace or war, caused by (a) any weapon of war employing atomic or nuclear fission and/or fusion/and or other reaction or radioactive force or matter or (b) any mine or torpedo; c) all consequences of hostilities or warlike operations (whether there will be a declaration of war or not), but this warranty shall not exclude collision or contact with aircraft, or with rockets or similar missiles (other than weapons of war) or with fixed or floating object (other than a mine or torpedo), standing, heavy weather, fire or explosion unless caused directly (and independently of the nature of the voyage or service which the vessel concerned or, in the case of a collision, any other vessel involved therein, is performing) by a hostile act by or against a belligerent power; and for the purposes of this "power" includes any authority maintaining naval, military or air forces association with a power.; d) the consequences of civil war, revolution, rebellion, insurrection, or civil strife arising there from; or from the consequences of the imposition of martial law; military or usurped power; or piracy.

(C) Miscellaneous.
(1) The value of shipments involving documents (including checks, bonds, stock certificates, or any other negotiable or non-negotiable instrument), records and data records, without limitation as to the type, including but not limited to electronic or paper hard copy, shall be limited to the value of the actual media upon which it is contained. Further, no costs, expenses, or claims of any nature will be assumed or accepted which is associated with the replication, duplication or recreation of lost data or documentation. For example, in the case of paper documents the value shall be limited to the value of the paper.
(2) Regardless of commodity shipped or valuation, all transportation charges must be paid in full before any settlement for a claim for loss or damage will be made. No payor or other party with an interest in a shipment may deduct or offset any cargo loss, damage, or delay claims from any freight charges owed to Company. Company reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to either credit an account or provide an actual refund for any sums determined to be owed by Company.
(3) Company shall have the full benefit of the limitations on the amount of Company's liability for cargo loss, damage or destruction as set forth herein unless the Company has converted the cargo to its own use, or, through its intentionally wrongful conduct, has destroyed the cargo.
(4) If for any reason, Company is unable to make delivery, including, but not limited to, the consignee's failure to accept, Company's liability for loss, damage or destruction to cargo will immediately become that of a warehouseman under the Uniform Commercial Code, in which event, all limitations to and exclusions from Company's liability for loss, damage or destruction shall continue to apply, but Company shall not be liable unless loss, damage, or destruction is due to its failure to exercise reasonable care with respect to the cargo.
(5) Company's sole liability, and Shipper's sole recovery, with respect to cargo loss, damage or delay will be as set forth in this Item and in no event will Company be liable under any other theory of law, nor to any party other than the actual beneficial owner of cargo, or its direct assignee, with respect to any claim arising from or related to loss or damage to cargo or delay. If Shipper is not the beneficial cargo owner, then Shipper warrants and represents that it is authorized to bind the beneficial cargo owner to this provision. RE-CONSIGNMENT OR DIVERSION A request for re-consignment or diversion to change the name or address of a consignor or Consignee, a change in the destination or place of delivery, or a change of billing where necessary to effect delivery, will be accepted subject to the following provisions (in addition to the provisions in Item 362 (Corrected Bills of Lading)): (1) Requests for re-consignment or diversion must be made or confirmed in writing and Company must be satisfied that the party making the request has the authority to do so. (2) Only entire shipments (not portions of shipments) may be re-consigned or diverted. (3) Company will make diligent efforts to execute valid re-consignment or diversion requests, but will not be responsible if despite such efforts re-consignment or diversion is not effected. (4) When such a change in re-consignment or diversion is made, and allowed by Company, a charge of $86.00 for such change will be assessed against the ultimate payer of the freight charges. (5) If the shipment has been stowed by Company and is not accessible with less than 15 minutes of labor, the charges for the diversion or re-consignment will be as outlined in Item 891. (6) If the shipment has been moved to the originally requested destination, it may be reshipped to another destination at rates negotiated between Company and the party responsible for the freight charges. (7) No charge for diversion or re-consignment will be made when such diversion or re-consignment involves merely the change of the address for Consignee, provided the new address, for that same Consignee, is located in the same city, town, municipality, (incorporated or unincorporated), and such change of address will still be subject to the provisions in Item 362 (Corrected Bills of Lading). (8) Re-consignment or diversion may not be requested after placement or delivery has been attempted at the destination. Once placement or delivery has been attempted, goods must be reshipped for purposes of re-consignment or diversion. All such diversions/re-consignments shall be subject to confirmation from Company, verbally or otherwise.	820

SHIPMENTS TENDERED ON SHIPPER-FURNISHED EQUIPMENT Unless otherwise provided, goods tendered in containers furnished by Shipper will be accepted subject to completion of Company's Standard Interchange Agreement and Equipment Inspection Report (E.I.R.). Charges for such goods will be assessed in accordance with the applicable rates and charges named in this tariff. All such containers must be able to be handled when loaded with goods as compatible with Company's standard operations. (1) Loaded containers moving northbound under the provisions of this Item shall be entitled to a free empty movement southbound for return to origin. This free empty return will apply provided that: (A) Company has the right to load such empty container with other goods. (B) Such empty container is available to Company within 90 days after the loaded container arrives. (C) If such empty container not available to Company within the 90 day period, charges shall be assessed as negotiated between Company and Shipper. Shipper furnished containers must be marked at both front and rear with identification marks or as required by underlying ocean carrier's requirements. If proper identification marks are not on any Shipper furnished container, Company shall be entitled to mark such container and an additional charge of $185.00 per container will be assessed.	884

(3) At any time after expiration of free time, Company may, at its option, place the goods in public storage, in which event all charges, including transportation and handling charges incidental to the placing of goods into or out of public storage, shall be for the account of the goods, including the cost of public storage, with the storage charges outlined in paragraph (2) above to terminate the first day following placement of goods into public storage. Company retains all lien rights it is entitled to hereunder while goods are stored in a public warehouse. If Company arranges for storage with a third party, all charges assessed by such third party will be for the account of Shipper and the Consignee. Company's responsibility with respect to such goods will terminate upon such tender as if Company had made delivery to the ultimate consignee. (4) When goods are available for delivery (see Note 1) but not released to Consignee because of: (A) nonpayment of freight and/or other charges (where credit has not been extended); (B) indication of inability to pay freight and/or other charges; and/or (C) non-receipt of proper shipping documents; then storage charges will accrue after the expiration of free time once the goods have been made available (see Note 1) up to but not including the day that freight and/or other charges, including storage charges under this Item, have been paid and/or or proper shipping documents have been received. (5) Storage charges under this Item shall terminate only after one of the following conditions has been met: (A) The goods have been dispatched to point of delivery by Company or its agent (see Note 1). (B) The goods are placed into storage at the request of Shipper. Shipper must inspect goods, sign off delivery receipt and sign a storage contract. (Refer to Item 911). (C) The goods have been placed into public storage (refer to Paragraph (3) of this Item). (D) Company is instructed, via facsimile or written instruction, that the goods will be accepted at a specific date/location, the date of actual acceptance to serve as the date of termination of storage charges provided that the goods are accepted as instructed. Storage charges will accrue up to but not including the day that freight and/or other charges, including storage charges under this Item, have been paid and/or proper shipping documents received. (7) Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays will be excluded in the computation of free time but shall be included in the computation of storage charges. (8) Storage charges will be assessed against Shipper unless other arrangements have been approved by Company in writing. (9) Company reserves the right to sell stored goods publicly or privately to compensate it for unpaid freight and/or other charges to the extent and in the manner allowed by applicable federal and state laws. (10) Company shall not be required to deliver, or make available for delivery, goods at times other than its normal business hours on normal business days. NOTE 1: Notification of availability shall mean giving notice to Consignee that the goods are or will be physically available on a specific date and time at a specific place. LOSS/DAMAGE, PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICES FOR THE INVESTIGATION AND DISPOSITION OF CLAIMS (A) FILING OF CLAIMS: (1) Claim in Writing Required A claim for loss or damage to cargo will not be voluntarily paid by the Company, unless filed in writing, as provided in sub-paragraph (2) below, with Company, within specified time limits applicable thereto. (2) Minimum Filing Requirements A communication in writing from claimant, filed with the Company within the limits specified in the bill of lading and (1) containing facts sufficient to identify the cargo, (2) asserting liability for the alleged loss or damage, (3) making claim for the payment of a specified or determinable amount of money and (4) including (i) copy of the freight bill, (ii) copy of the signed delivery receipt, (iii) photographs of the damaged cargo; and (iv) copy of an invoice and/or other supporting documentation evidencing the value of goods claimed, will be considered as sufficient compliance for filing a claim. (3) Claim Filed for Uncertain Amounts Whenever a claim is presented against the Company for an uncertain amount, such as "100.00 more or less", the Company will determine the condition of the cargo at the time of delivery by it, if it was delivered, and will ascertain as nearly as possible the extent, if any, of the loss or damage for which it may be responsible. It will not, however, voluntarily pay a claim under such circumstances unless and until a formal claim, in writing, for a specified or determinable amount of money shall have been filed in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) above. (B) ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CLAIMS: The Company will, upon receipt in writing of a proper claim in the manner and form described in Section A(2) above, acknowledge the receipt of such claim in writing to the claimant within 30 days after the date of its receipt by the Company, unless the Company will have paid or declined such claim in writing within 30 days of the receipt thereof. The Company will indicate in its acknowledgement to the claimant what, if any, additional documentary evidence or other pertinent information may be required by it to further process the claim. The Company will at the time each claim is received create a separate file and assign thereto a successive claim number and note that number on all documents filed in support of the claim and records and correspondence with respect to the claim, including the written acknowledgment of receipt. At the time such claim is received, the Company will cause the date of the receipt to be recorded on the face of the claim document and the date of receipt will also appear in the Company's written acknowledgment of receipt to the claimant. Claims shall include the name of the claimant, its file number, if any, and the amount of the refund sought to be recovered, if known. (b) Except when the original freight bill is not a paper document but is electronically transmitted, claims for overcharge shall be accompanied by the original freight bill. Additional information may include, but is not limited to, the following: (1) the rate, classification, or commodity description or weight claimed to have been applicable; (2) complete tariff authority for the rate, classification, or commodity description claimed; (3) freight bill payment information; and (4) other documents or data which is believed by claimant to substantiate the basis for its claim. (c) Claims for duplicate payment and over collection shall be accompanied by the original freight bill(s) for which charges were paid (except when the original freight bill is not a paper document but is electronically transmitted) and by freight bill payment information. (d) Regardless of the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) above, the failure to provide sufficient information and documentation to allow Company to conduct an investigation and pay or decline the claim within the allowable time limitation shall not constitute grounds for disallowance of the claim. Rather, the Company shall comply with Item 1105 to obtain the additional information required. (e) Company shall accept copies instead of the original documents required to be submitted in this Item where Company is furnished with an agreement entered into by the claimant which indemnifies Company for subsequent duplicate claims which might be filed and supported by the original documents. (f) A claim alleging that Company is liable for an overcharge or to refund any duplicate payment or unidentified payment, will not be paid unless filed within one hundred eighty (180) days of the date of the payment giving rise to any such claim, which claim must specify the particulars. OVERCHARGE CLAIMS, DISPOSITION OF The processing Company shall pay, decline to pay, or settle each written or electronically communicated claim within 60 days after its receipt by that Company, except where the claimant and said Company agree in writing or electronically to a specific extension based upon extenuating circumstances. If said Company declines to pay a claim or makes settlement in an amount different from that sought, it shall notify the claimant in writing or electronically of the reason(s) for its action, citing tariff authority or other pertinent information developed as a result of its investigation	1108
UNIDENTIFIED PAYMENTS Company shall have an established procedure for identifying and properly applying all unidentified payments. If Company does not have sufficient information with which properly to apply such a payment, it shall notify the payor of the unidentified payment within 60 days of receipt of the payment and request information which will enable it to identify the payment. If Company does not receive the information requested within 90 days from the date of the notice, it may treat the unidentified payment as a payment in fact of freight charges owing to it. Following the 90-day period, the regular claims procedure under this part shall be applicable. Notice under this Item shall be in writing and clearly indicate that it is a final notice and not a bill. Notice shall include: check number, amount, and date; the payor's name; and any additional basic information Company is able to provide. The final notice also must inform payor that: (i) Applicable regulations allow Company to conditionally retain the payment as revenue in the absence of a timely response by the payor; and (ii) following the 90-day period the regular claims procedure shall be applicable. Upon Company's receipt of information from the payor, Company shall, within 14 days: (i) make a complete refund of such funds to the payor; or (ii) notify the payor that the information supplied is not sufficient to identify the unapplied payment and request additional information; or (iii) notify the payor of Company's determination that such payment was applicable to particular freight charges lawfully due. Where no refund is made by Company, Company shall advise the payor of its right to file a formal claim for refund in accordance with the regular claims procedures set forth in this tariff. When Company (when single or joint line haul) discovers or is notified by such a participating carrier that an overcharge, duplicate payment, or over collection exists for any transportation charge which has not been the subject of a claim, the Company shall create a file as if a claim had been submitted and shall record in the file the date it discovered or was notified of the overpayment. STB SPAJ 300 SPAN-ALASKA TRANSPORTATION, LLC FREIGHT TARIFF 300 – APPENDIX A
RULES AND GOVERNING PROVISIONS:	RULE NO:
APPLICATION OF APPENDIX A – GENERAL Except as otherwise provided, this Appendix A applies to Company's arrangement of transportation of general commodities and like personal property between points in the contiguous United States and points in Alaska (the "AlaskaConnect Services"). If Company provides AlaskaConnect Services, the terms and conditions contained in this Appendix A shall supersede any conflicting terms and conditions set forth in the Tariff. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any and all terms contained in the Tariff which do not conflict with the terms of this Appendix A shall continue to apply to the AlaskaConnect Services in full force and effect.	A160
CALIFORNIA COMPLIANCE SURCHARGE Shipments originating from and/or destined for the state of California will be subject to a charge of $35.00 per shipment, in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A.	A400
APPOINTMENT If Company receives instructions to schedule an appointment or otherwise establish a specific time for the pickup of a shipment, such shipments will be subject to a charge of $46.00 per shipment per appointment, in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A.	A596
DRIVER DISPATCHED – NO FREIGHT TENDERED Once a motor carrier's driver is en route to pickup a shipment, and through no fault of Company, the shipment is not tendered at origin, the party requesting such pickup shall be subject to a charge of $150 per occurrence, in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A, including, but not limited to, accessorial charges.	A600
HAZARDOUS MATERIALS Shipments containing hazardous materials, as described in provisions of Department of Transportation Regulations, including, but not limited to, Title 49, Parts 100 through 180 of the Code of Federal Regulations, will be subject to a handling charge of $175.00 per shipment. The charge set forth in this Rule A700 shall apply in lieu of the per cwt charge in Item 540 of the Tariff (currently $3.62 per cwt) and shall override all other Tariff charges related to hazardous materials (including, but not limited to, Tariff Rule 540). For the avoidance of doubt, this Rule A700 does not supplant any other charge otherwise applicable to the shipment.	A700
INSIDE PICKUP When requested by Shipper or Consignee and provided that Company's operating conditions permit, Company may move shipments or portions of shipments from or to positions beyond the immediately adjacent loading or unloading positions, provided that such pickup services shall not be available in conjunction with residential pickups. Services provided under this Rule A800 do not include charges for service to floors above or below the level accessible to Company's vehicle or any other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A. Such services shall be subject to the following charges: (1) $175.00 per shipment, for inside services performed outside the state of Alaska or Auburn, Washington 98001.	A800

FREIGHT TARIFF 300 – APPENDIX A

RULES AND GOVERNING PROVISIONS:		RULE NO:
LIFTGATE SERVICES When Company is requested or required to employ mechanical loading or unloading devices, including, but not limited to, hydraulic lifting or lowering devices, to accomplish pickup of the goods, such services will be subject to the charges set forth below, in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A. Company is not obligated to perform such services when suitable vehicles, equipped with such devices, and operators are not available. Provisions of this Rule A900 shall not be construed as obligating Company to provide such services if, for any reason, Company finds it impracticable or unsafe to provide the services. A charge of $100.00 per shipment, in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A, shall apply to the services provided under this Rule A900. The charge set forth under this Rule A900 is applicable only for liftgate services performed at origin points outside the state of Alaska.		A900
LIMITED ACCESS PICKUP In addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A, shipments originating from the Limited Access locations (as defined below) shall be assessed the following charges: (1) For Limited Access locations outside the state of Alaska, $115.00 per shipment. “Limited Access” locations include, but are not limited to, (1) locations that are not open to the public during normal business hours; (2) locations that do not have personnel readily available to assist with pickup; (3) any site where security related inspection or process is required before services can be performed; and (4) any site where vehicle access is restricted by a gate or other barrier. Examples of Limited Access locations include, but are not limited to: airports; amusement parks; camps, lodges, parks, or resorts; churches or places of worship; construction sites; container freight stations; country clubs or golf courses; farms or ranches; forest sites; government sites; hotels; mines; Native American reservations; nursing homes; piers, ports, or wharfs; prisons; schools or universities; storage units; and utility sites. For the avoidance of doubt, the term “utility site” shall mean a power generation station, whether nuclear, thermal, hydroelectrical, or fossil fuel, or a pumping station, including the entire property of the utility.		A1000
OVER & EXCESSIVE LENGTH In addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A, shipments containing one or more articles that equal or exceed 8 feet in length will be subject to the following charges: <table><tr><td>Longest Dimension:</td><td>Applicable Fee (per shipment):</td></tr><tr><td>8 feet but less than 12 feet</td><td>$500.00</td></tr><tr><td>12 feet but less than 16 feet</td><td>$1000.00</td></tr><tr><td>16 feet but less than 20 feet</td><td>$2000.00</td></tr><tr><td>20 feet but less than 27 feet</td><td>$4000.00</td></tr><tr><td>27 feet or over</td><td>$4000.00</td></tr></table> The following shipments are not subject to the charges set forth in this Rule A1100: shipments originating at Company’s facility in Auburn, Washington, and destined for Alaska. For the avoidance of doubt, any shipment transported within the contiguous United States shall be subject to the charges set forth in this Rule A1100. RULES AND GOVERNING PROVISIONS:	RULE NO:
PROTECT FROM FREEZING If Company acknowledges a request to protect a shipment from freezing, in addition to the charges set forth under Tariff Rule 748, which shall remain in effect for the shipment's travel via ocean and/or within the state of Alaska, the following charges shall apply to the shipment's transportation by land within the contiguous United States and shall override any charges related to protection from freezing set forth in the Tariff: $7.00 CWT, subject to a minimum charge per shipment of $125.00.	A1200
RE-CONSIGNMENT OR DIVERSION In the event Company accepts a request for re-consignment or diversion to change the name or address of a Consignor or Consignee, a change in the destination or place of delivery, or a change of billing where necessary to effect delivery, services shall be subject to the provisions set forth under Tariff Rule 820. All shipments subject to this Rule A1300 shall also be assessed a flat fee of $196.00 per shipment, in addition to any linehaul or mileage costs added by originating provider. In the event Shipper or third party tenders a bill of lading to a Carrier in lieu of the bill of lading issued by Company, and reconsignment or diversion is requested, Company shall make reasonable attempts to reroute the Carrier. If the corrected bill of lading is not accepted by the Carrier, the routing and billing party for the shipment shall be determined as set forth in the original bill of lading provided by Shipper to Carrier.	A1300
RESIDENTIAL PICKUP (1) GENERAL APPLICATION: The provisions of this Rule A1400 apply when Company is requested or required to make pickup at a private residence, apartment, boat slip, estate or farm (a "Private Residence"). The term "Private Residence" shall apply to the entire premises. (2) BILL OF LADING INFORMATION: The Shipper shall indicate on the bill of lading when pickup at a Private Residence is required and shall also list the name, telephone number, and full address of the party to contact to arrange delivery. Origin on the bill of lading at a Private Residence address will be considered a request for delivery under terms of this Rule A1400. (3) ARRIVAL NOTICE: Before pickup is initially attempted, Company will provide the Consignee with notice of arrival, and Company and the consignor shall reach a mutual arrangement for delivery of the shipment. (4) CHARGES: (a) Shipments picked up by the Consignee at Company's destination terminal no later than the first business day after notice of arrival has been given will not be subject to additional charges provided in this Rule A1400. (b) The charge assessed will apply separately for pickup and will be in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A. (c) Shipments picked up at a Private Residence by Company, except as otherwise noted, will be assessed an additional charge of: (i) $115.00 for residential pickups or deliveries outside of the state of Alaska	A1400

RULES AND GOVERNING PROVISIONS:		RULE NO:
REWEIGH OR RECLASSIFICATION (1) If the description or other information contained on the bill of lading is incomplete or is believed to be incorrect, Company may seek to determine accurate information, but is under no obligation to do so and is not liable should it fail to do so. Actions may include, but are not limited to: reweighing product to determine gross weights, inspection of the product, computations to confirm density, or other such actions necessary to properly establish facts regarding the shipment's characteristics. (2) When an inspection results in a reclassification of the contents of the shipment, a charge of $75.00 per shipment will be applied to the freight bill plus all applicable freight, fuel surcharge, and accessorial charges will be modified accordingly. When Company is requested to perform an inspection on a shipment by an outside party, Company may, at its option, inspect each shipment, subject to a charge of $75.00 per shipment. (3) The charge shall be the responsibility of the payor of the freight charges and shall be in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A. (4) Company reserves the right to verify shipment weight and make adjustments as necessary by use of electronic portable scales. Company verifies that such scales are "for trade" and meet all local and state laws regarding accurate weight within 1% tolerance of actual weight. (5) If the weight change determined by Company is an increase of 20 pounds or greater than the original weight as stated on the bill of lading, a charge of $75.00 per shipment will be applied to the freight bill, in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A. All applicable freight, fuel, and accessorial charges will be modified accordingly. (6) If Shipper fails to indicate the weight of their shipment on the original bill of lading, Company will weigh the shipment and charge a fee of $75.00 per shipment to perform this service, in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A. This fee will also be assessed against payor of freight charges anytime a carrier is requested to weigh or reweigh a shipment for any reason.		A1500
PASS THROUGH CHARGES In the event that Company utilizes a third-party carrier to perform services contemplated within the Tariff and/or this Appendix A, Company shall pass through to Shipper all such charges assessed to Company by the third-party carrier. Shipper shall be liable for all such pass through charges in addition to all other applicable charges under the Tariff and this Appendix A.		A1600
LIABILITY FOR LOSS / DAMAGE OF GOODS For all shipments subject to this Appendix A, the following language contained in the first paragraph of Rule 574 under subdivision (ii)(A) is deleted: "with respect to new and unused items, $25.00 per pound, subject to a maximum liability of $100,000 per shipment." The aforementioned language is replaced with the following language for all shipments subject to this Appendix A: "with respect to new and unused items, $5.00 per pound, subject to a maximum liability of $100,000 per shipment."		A1700
